

Summary of the AFA Board Meeting

Mid-year Meeting, August 12, 2024

Via Zoom

The Board of Directors of the American Finance Association met via Zoom on August 12, 2024. This report summarizes the non-routine decisions and reports made at the meeting.

1. The AFA has formed a committee to consider expanding the AFA mentoring programs.
2. Operating losses have improved but remain high. The investment committee is developing a policy to inform their work.
3. The Journal of Finance implemented a webinar series for the winners of the JF Prizes and is raising money to fund the Rick Green prize for junior faculty.
4. The AFA remains in contract negotiations with Wiley regarding the Journal of Finance: Insights and Perspectives. The previously slated editor of the JF:I&P has stepped down and an Editorial Committee was proposed and subsequently approved to nominate an Editorial Team for the JF:I&P.
